Why Join the Gulf of Guinea Maritime Institute?

Members of the Gulf of Guinea Maritime Institute are part of an equally dynamic and global community, contributing to stimulating dialogues and policy innovation aimed at addressing the Gulf of Guinea region's dynamic ocean governance and maritime safety challenges of the 21st century.

The Institute, together with its members build consensus to advance ocean governance solutions. Membership's three pillars – connect, build, impact – represent our guiding philosophy and the benefits that our members receive.

As a member, you will receive invitations to the Institute's exclusive meetings, including high-level forums and briefings, plus access to member-only publications from experts and thought leaders on analysis of strategic maritime issues in the Gulf of Guinea region.

Contribute to GoGMI

The Institute invites individuals who have cutting-edge expertise in any field of maritime affairs to contribute to the Institute's indigenous research activities and programs. Members can harness the institute's high-level convening power and rich expertise to engage in in-depth discussions tailored to the GoG region's ocean governance challenges to develop critical solutions that address maritime security and safety concerns.
